

Haley Lloyd

INTERIOR DESIGN DIRECTOR

Building on more than a decade of experience in the design industry, Haley's focused leadership has brought continued growth and expansion to the firm's Interior Design Studio. Having formerly collaborated with top designers around the nation while living in Chicago and Los Angeles, Haley brings an elevated design sensibility to the environments she conceives. She plays an integral role supervising and mentoring junior staff through all phases of project development.

From concept to completion, Haley is recognized for her exceptional attention to detail which ensures that even the most intricate projects receive her insight at each phase. She has earned praise from clients who appreciate her ability to manage all aspects of the design while guiding them through her personalized, process-oriented approach.

She consistently delivers creative, concise design solutions. Her ability to couple beauty and function has won the firm the 2016 NAIOP Office Interior Design Award of Excellence.

Haley provides her clients with more than just attractive, well-programmed rooms; she strives to create an emotive experience that allows people to thrive.
